| Enter your reflective comments | We have learned that while many of our goals are becoming embedded in the college culture, there are clearly areas to improve or encourage in order that they too become a 'natural' part of the way education is conducted here. Our 2017 Attitudes to School data show that we are in the third and fourth quartiles for attendances, transition and personal safety, and teacher-student relationships. Especially strong is transition of year six into year seven. This is a direct result of our strong Pastoral Care program and network activities with our 'feeder' schools. Evidence based high impact teaching strategies are making an impact at all levels, with NAPLAN and On Demand data showing significant gains in literacy and numeracy. This has partly been a consequence of professional learning teams being tasked with developing sets of curriculum strategies and moderated assessments. Extensive use of data sets to analyze student learning and engagement levels within strategic leadership groups like the SIT also contributed in a very positive way. Data is widely shared and discussed both at a personal and faculty level and staff are well practiced in working collaboratively with relevant data sets to improve student outcomes. |
|---------------------------------------|---|

| Considerations for 2019 | The information from the middle school focus groups has shown that the College needs to develop strategies for engaging boys in greater numbers. It also has implications for Teaching & Learning; faculties will need to reflect on courses and teachers need to consider how to differentiate more effectively and include more students in decisions about their learning. Further work needs to be done with developing a set of agreed teaching and learning protocols College-wide, and in supporting staff through mentoring. Collegiate observation is currently part of staff performance plans and in 2018 will extend to a more structured program of peer observation. Differentiation of curriculum and building Resilience and Respectful Relationships are identified as priorities within the student body. The school will establish teaching teams dedicated to challenging and improving each other's practice. Student feedback will be routinely sought and inform school improvement. |

Improvement Initiatives Rationale

We want to ensure that the school's professional teaching and learning approach has well-articulated purposes that are focused on student outcomes into the future, derived from the analysis of student data. We believe that is central to improving overall student outcomes and embedding a culture of continual improvement. Teachers' individual plans have strong line of sight to the school's goals and targets. We use High Performing School's data (years 7-12 whole school), Attitudes to School (whole school), NAPLAN (years 7 & 9, On Demand (year 7-9) and Teachers make links between students' progress data and their own professional learning needs.

We need to ensure that all teaching staff have professional learning aligned with FISO improvement strategies. Creating a 'common' language of educational practice will focus energies on achieving better outcomes. Establishing best practice and agreed protocols of teaching are a necessary next step.

Define Evidence of Impact and Activities and Milestones - 2018

| Goal 1 | To improve student learning outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Year 7-10 Numeracy and Literacy Year 11-12 results across all pathways |
| 12 month target 1.1 | Raise middle years engagement of boys from the second quartile to the third quartile. Improve Stimulating Learning for boys in the ATOS from second quartile to third quartile. |
| FISO Initiative | Building practice excellence |
| Key Improvement Strategy 1 | Hold student focus groups that focus on student engagement and stimulating learning to guide review of the middle years curriculum. |
| Actions | Initiate focus groups of year 8 & 9 boys to investigate falling levels of engagement according to ATOS |
| Evidence of impact | Raise middle years engagement of boys from second to third quartile in 2019 by initiating focus groups to determine necessary changes to curriculum. In particular we would like to see an increase in the Differentiated learning of our male students and that staff will engage students through ensuring that course outlines include a variety of learning styles. This will be evaluated by our High Performing School survey and Attitudes to School survey to show any improvement. |

| Actions | Year 8 camps will be evaluated and a report prepared by sub schools delivered to staff. Our Attitudes to School Survey results for 2017, identified that the Sense of Connectedness of males is considerably lower than that of the females. Student anecdotal feedback was that they were wanting a Year 8 Camp to form stronger relationships with one another and with their teachers. We are hoping that the camp will further engage and be a factor in increasing the overall Year 8 student connectedness results in 2018. | | | |
